Ode to the Chaos

By: Zeljana Opacak

I will let my thunder quake shake and turn everything inside and outside these walls

I will spin myself dizzy leave no corner unturned knock out the street lamps toss the roof up high

I will sway on the porch watch the zigzags
splitting open
the skin of the sky

I will let the wind sneak under the window panes spit out the trees
strangle the telephone wires

I will let my extra spill over the binding
while the river strains against the dam

I will let the rain drown this whole damn garden

so tomorrow
when the sun
knocks on my door
together, we will replant it all
